

Old school Rock 'n Roll

Words & Music by Dave James Hendrikse

Listen up my friends
There's something more than blues
It's like the touch of lightning
Yeah, you're gonna be moved

Last night we played in Tulsa
Tomorrow we're in San Antonio
We don't mind the cruise, that's fine
We're just gonna hit them all

Well, Son of a gun, we're gonna have some fun
Playin' Old school Rock 'n Roll
You gotta put all your faith in a loud guitar playin'
Old school Rock 'n Roll

Your days are gettin' tough
You have no faith to lose
The feelin' of your heartbeat keeps time with the drag of your shoes

Rolling like thunder
Gotta get up before it's Gone
Tell me how you want it, Momma
All I need is a damn good song
