

Why am I angry

Words & Music by Dave James Hendrikse

You said, It's gonna be good
It's gonna be great and after all
You're gonna be fine
I will catch you if you fall

The snow will melt away
Stop covering your eyes and watch the sun
Please just take the day
Your pain soon will be gone

But there's a feelin' haunting me
It's in my veins, but they can't see
It's like if you feel the sadness sweep
you off your feet

So, why am I angry
If everything is gonna be alright
So, why am I angry

They may have made it rain
I know I'm gonna get caught up in the pain
It's been a hell of a ride
To try to keep it all inside

But there's a feelin' haunting me
It's in my veins, but they can't see
It's like if you feel the sadness sweep
you off your feet

So, why am I angry
If everything is gonna be alright
So, why am I angry
Or are they telling me just lies
So, why am I angry
If everything is gonna be alright
So, why am I angry
